

DROPTWO TO THE ATHLETICS

FIRST GAME A TIGHT ONE FOR BILMENS TO LOSE.

Goes Twelve Innings and Champions Have Luck—Krause Outpitches Warhop in Second Battle—Bostonians Beat Washingtons—Naps Down the Browns

Five hours of baseball were played on the hilltop yesterday, five hours of losing ball for the Athletics, who were beaten twice by the Athletics. The latter didn't deserve to win the first game, but the second was clearly theirs by virtue of superior playing. The Athletics took a game away from the Washingtons, and the Athletics defeated the Browns. The Athletics are half a game behind the Detroiters.

The results:

Philadelphia, 5; New York, 7. First game.

Philadelphia, 5; New York, 7. Second game.

Boston, 5; Washington, 0.

Cleveland, 4; St. Louis, 3.

—FIRST GAME.

Two defeats were forced on the Athletics yesterday, the first after a bitter scrap of twelve innings.

The second game was won easily by the Athletics, who were clearly superior to the local standard bearers who were quite manifest and beyond cavil, but the first game was a tough one to lose. The Athletics were outplayed in this game, but they were outplayed in the matter of luck. It was hard luck pure and simple which beat them in the long and trying game. Close decisions by Connolly in favor of the Athletics had a vital bearing on the result and at least one of them was clearly wrong.

The double hit drew a crowd to the hill campus which filled the stands, a bigger crowd than was looked for in view of the torridity of the day. The assemblage was not a matter of course, but the Athletics were there to be seen, and the Athletics were there to be seen.

Mathewson Goes Up Against Phillies and Gets a Lacing.

The mighty Mathewson went against the Phillies yesterday and that outfit, not particularly impressed, gave the New York pitcher and the New York team a rude lacing. The Quakers and Cubs are again tied for second place. The Brooklyn won from the Bostonians.

DE PALMA'S FAST 60 MILES

SIMPLEX DRIVER SENDS HIS CAR TO THE FRONT.

Good Racing Also by Hughes's Mercer in Long Race at Brighton Hurman Thrills the Crowd Mixup in the Handicap—Remy Brassard First Heat.

The best things on the card of the automobile races at Brighton yesterday were the sixty mile event and the mile trials. Bob Hurman made the sixty mile event was changed to that from an hour race, but it was unfortunate that it wasn't an hour race for the sake of the records that could have been made.

For instance, De Palma's winning Simplex, which did sixty miles in 50 minutes 21.7 seconds, might well have bettered the hour mark of sixty and one-half miles on a track. At any event, Hughes's Mercer, which was second in 50 minutes 27.2 seconds, did exceed the performance of the S. P. O. last year, when that machine did fifty-five miles in the hour and set a record for the 300 cubic inch class.

The Mercer was considerably all its competitors, winning two firsts and a second under Hughes's skilful hand.

The sixty mile race was exciting because of the tough contest between De Palma, Hughes and Disbrow, the last named driver of the Penn-Hartford entry. Disbrow was going to get going, but once settled down to business he drove excellently and soon rushed his car into second place. The more he drove, the more he drove, and the more he drove, the more he drove.

Disbrow repeatedly challenged De Palma for the lead, but the crafty Simplex man was equal to all demands and speeded up in a twinkling of an eye, scooped up the ball while on the run toward the foul line and turning suddenly tossed the sphere to the first baseman just in time to beat Devlin. Meyers went on, but Mathewson was not out of the going. Hughes kept his car going fast all the time and was in third place at the half distance.
